The Year 7 Catch Up Premium is funding provided by the Department for Education to help raise the attainment of students who meet the criteria for the Year 7 catch-up premium. This is to support student progress in English and Maths at the start of secondary education.

In 2018-19 Twyford received £6000.

The funding is allocated to support:

- Literacy booster lessons
- 1:1 reading
- Spelling groups
- Numeracy catch-up

Last year the early intervention for literacy had a really effective impact on student achievement. The average rate of progress for the 38 Year 7 students needing literacy intervention was 2 years 6 months.
